

JOURNAL

SECRET

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 30 April 1962

25X1

2. [redacted] telephoned indicating that Navy had inquired of him as to what members of the House Ways and Means Committee had a [redacted] briefing. He stated that he advised Lt. Cmdr. Pyle of the Navy to check with this office on the item.

3. [redacted] called to say that he had as yet not located a record of a Department of Defense clearance on [redacted] a shorthand reporter who takes the record of some congressional hearings. [redacted] did locate DOD clearances on nine employees of [redacted] reporting firm. These will be recorded for future reference.

4. [redacted] Talked with William Shattuck, on the staff of the House Judiciary Committee, concerning [redacted] a bill for the [redacted] I advised Shattuck that we were sending the Committee what was basically a factual report but including a paragraph which indicated DOB concern about this bill from a policy standpoint and the fact that it would establish a precedent. Shattuck thanked me for my call and said he thought such a letter would help to put the matter in its proper perspective.

SECRET

SECRET

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 9 April 1962

Page 2

25X1 5. [] Met with Jim Gehrig and Diane Kincaid, on the 25X1 staff of Senator Stuart Symington, and gave them further information
25X1 provided by [] on purchases []
[] of aircraft and aircraft engines from the Soviet Union. This appeared to satisfy them at least for the moment. I advised them that if this information should be used, it not be attributed to this Agency.

25X1 6. [] Received from Mr. Cyrus R. Vance, General
25X1 Counsel, DOD, a proposed press release presently classified SECRET on
[] The letter
and enclosure were transmitted to Colonel Grogan for his action.

JOHN S. WARNER Legislative Counsel

cc: IG
DD/S
Colonel Grogan

SECRET